Depending on your browser the download will start.

In Chrome you will see the download at the bottom of the screen.

In Firefox it will appear like this.

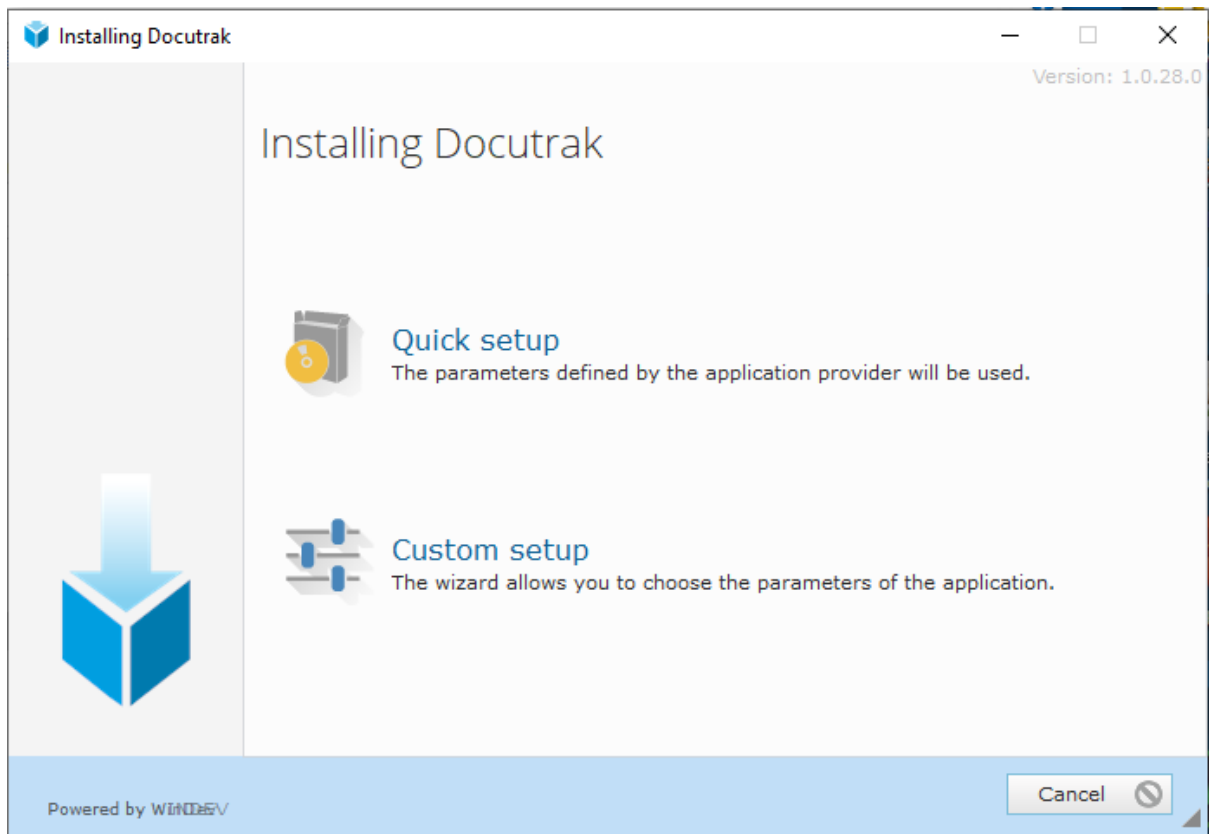

And the download is at the top of the screen.

Double-click on the download and it will install.

Initially it will ask you to confirm the install.

You will then be asked for the type of install. Choose Quick.

The program should now be loaded.

If Windows Smartscreen stops the install then see the additional instructions on Problems with Smartscreen.
